Funeral Service For One of Irma's Oldest and Earliest Settlers

MRS. OLIVA MARIE LARSON
It was with great regret that friends and neighbors of the Irma district learned of the passing on August 15 of Mrs. Oliva Marie Larson, one of our oldest and earliest settlers.

Mrs. Larson had been in poor health for some time and passed away quietly in an Edmonton nursing home where she had been for almost a year.

Mrs. Larson was born at Fiskaberg, Norway, on July 26, 1871, and in 1893 she was married to the late Ramus A. "Cop" Larson. In 1906 they, with their four children, left Norway and were the first family to settle north of Irma in what became the Ross district. Seven years later they moved to the Albert district. From 1939 to 1943 Mrs. Larson lived at Muriel Lake but following Mr. Larson's death she returned to Irma.

Grandma Larson's capabilities, kindness and hospitality were well known in the community. In the early days land-seekers and travellers were always sure to get a night's lodging and a welcome at the Larson home.

She leaves to mourn her loss five sons, Alf, Richard, Louie, Hakon and Erling, all in the Irma district; two daughters, Mrs. Howard McInroy (Augusta) of Princeton, B.C., and Mrs. Geo. Spring (Anne) of Bonnyville; 35 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren; six brothers, Andreas, Mathias and Olaf Strand in Norway, Adolf and Sigvald in Montana, U.S., and Guy in Edmonton.

Rev. H. W. Inglis conducted the largely attended funeral service on August 20 from the Irma United Church and interment was in the family plot in the Irma cemetery.

Blood Donor Clinic September 4

Don't forget to attend the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic being held in the Irma School on Tuesday, Sept. 4, between the hours of 6 and 9 p.m.

Appointment cards are being mailed out. If the time on your card is inconvenient for you, do not stay away, come earlier or later, but be sure to come. If you do not receive a card, forgive the mailing committee the oversight and come anyway.

When regular Blood Donor Clinics were held in Irma, they were always given excellent support. When the Red Cross appealed for donors this spring, the Irma Elks Lodge wrote and offered to sponsor a clinic here if they would come. We feel that the people of the Irma district would support a clinic here as generously now as they had in the past.

Give freely. Give NOW.

EASTERLY ECHOES

WITH THE District Agriculturist

By J. S. Duncan

Stilbrest for Steers
It is likely that many farmers will want to try using a Stilbrest supplement for their feeder steers this fall now that it is available. Anyone using this product should be very careful to follow directions exactly. Stilbrest is only to be fed to steers over 600 pounds and must not be fed to breeding stock, milk cows or pigs. Pigs must not be allowed to run with steers being fed Stilbrest.

Another important fact to remember is that while Stilbrest properly used, can give good feed savings it is not the complete answer to profitable feeding of steers. Careful feeding and management are still important if you are to get best results from this product.

Egg Production

Early pullets will soon be starting to lay and so should be moved into the laying house. It is a good plan to disinfect the henhouse before bringing in the new flock, so as to be free of lice, mites, etc. Don't overcrowd your pullets, make sure that they have enough space on the floor, the roosts and around feeders and waterers and enough nests. If your flock is mixed pullets and cockerels the cockerels should be taken out and penned separately to be fed for market. Don't force the pullets too hard, make sure they have grit and oyster shell available at all times and when they begin to lay start feeding them a laying ration.

Exhibit At Visit

Royal Winter Fair
The Royal Winter Fair is the largest agricultural fair in the world. Alberta always manages to win a fair share of the prizes so there is proof that we can grow good products. What about some entries from this district? There are prize lists and information at my office.

How about a trip east to go to the fair? Last year a group from Vermilion went and according to their reports they had a wonderful time. The railroads will likely be putting on special rates for groups. Anyone interested should contact me for more information.

NOTICE

Wainwright Man Loses Life in Highway Mishap

Early Sunday morning a fatal accident occurred on the highway near Jarow when the truck in which Allan and Robert Massie, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Massie of Wainwright (formerly of Fehyan) ran off the road and into the ditch. Charles Allen of Wainwright who was also returning from the dance at Kinsella was at the scene of the accident very shortly after it occurred. He found Allan Massie dead and Robert with serious injuries. He took Robert to Wainwright hospital where his condition is still critical.

Funeral services for Allan Massie were held from the United Church at Wainwright on Tuesday, August 28.

Then Mrs. Archie Fleming after expressing regret over the departure of Willie, Anne and family and extending the warmest wishes of all present for their future happiness, presented them with a lovely floor lamp. Marlene received a small gift from the Buy Nothing Club. All joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows, after which Peggy sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." ### SQUARE-DANCE CALL

The folks attending the square dance in Kiefer's hall, Saturday evening, August 18, enjoyed the calling by Sam Stead, formerly of Irma and now living in Lethbridge. We were pleased to have Sam instruct us in some of the rounds and squares they are doing in Lethbridge and the members present from Albert Circle A and Irma clubs agreed that it would be nice if he could return after the busy season to give us more of the calls from 'way down South.'

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
Every branch in me that beareth not fruit He taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.
If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
John 15:1-7.

Rotarians officially open Camp Easter Seal

The permanent home for Saskatchewan's Camp Easter Seal summer camping program for physically handicapped children and adults is located in the former provincial summer resort and park at Manitou Beach, near Watrous.

The provincial deputy minister of Natural Resources, J. W. Churchman, turned over title to the camp site to the president of the Saskatchewan Council for Crippled Children and Adults, J. W. B. Bremner of Regina. Mr. Churchman then declared the camp officially open as the permanent home of Camp Easter Seal.

The ceremonies coincided with a rally of several hundred Rotary Club members from all parts of the province at Watrous. The camping program is financed by funds raised in the annual Rotary Club sponsored Easter Seal campaign.

Following the official opening, the president of the Watrous Rotary Club—A. H. Burke—presented a cheque for $57,000.00 (representing proceeds from the 1956 campaign) to the Governor of Rotary district 172—Bill Botting. Mr. Botting in turn presented the cheque to Mr. Bremner.

Close to 400 guests and visitors were on hand at the camp for the ceremonies. The mayor of Watrous—H. V. Teal—and a councillor from the village of Manitou—Walter Scott—welcomed the visitors and the camp to the district.

In opening the camp site, Mr. Churchman noted that the stone chalet and dining hall buildings were built in 1936 as a relief project during the depression years.

Up until this year, he said, it had been used as a summer resort. The deputy resources minister paid tribute to what he termed: "the pioneers of this camping movement" for handicapped children and adults. He stated: "on behalf of the provincial government and my department it gives me great pleasure to turn over the title to this property to the Council, and to declare this the permanent home of Camp Easter Seal."

Camp Easter Seal this summer will accommodate an estimated 260 children and adults during its two month camping season.

Wheat Queen contest results announced

The Saskatchewan Wheat Queen Contest committee are pleased to announce the results of the contest which was decided recently. The winner receiving the highest number of votes is Miss Marilyn Blair of Regina, sponsored by Saskatchewan Civil Service Association. Second highest is Miss Elaine Flock of Tisdale sponsored by 4-H Homecraft Clubs. Third highest is Miss Karen Knapp of Stewart Valley, sponsored by Junior Saskatchewan Farmers' Union.

Miss Marilyn Blair is thrilled and excited at winning this coveted honor. She is 19 years old and was an outstanding pupil receiving three class pins in Scott Collegiate in Regina. She is an accomplished musician, playing piano, drums and marimba and studied tap and acrobatic dancing for nine years. She was drummer and majorette with the widely acclaimed Regina Lions Junior Band and travelled with them to Toronto, Chicago, Denver and Vancouver.

Miss Elaine Flock, the second prize winner is 18 years old, is an accomplished speaker and likes working with and meeting people.

Miss Karen Knapp is 17 years of age, teaches Sunday school class and has had four years experience in Bryant Oratorical Competition. In 1955 she won the Phelps' Trophy in the annual Provincial Saskatchewan. Karen is a member of the Saskatchewan Union public speaking contest. She has taken part in music festivals and in school dramatic plays.

The Wheat Queen and her two attendants will be brought into Regina and will stay in the Royal Suite at the Drake Hotel at the expense of the A.C.T. Regina club.

The Wheat Queens will be officially crowned by the Lt.-Gov. of Saskatchewan, the Honorable W. J. Patterson. The three winners will receive complete wardrobes and a round of public and social activities with the courtesy of A.C.T. Regina club.

The Wheat Queen will receive an expense paid trip via T.C.A. to Chicago and chaperone, where she will attend the International Livestock and Grain Exposition for the entire week. The two attendants will receive additional cash prizes.

The purposes of this contest are to publicize the "Wheat Theme" of the Province of Saskatchewan and of the Regina Agriculture and Industrial Exhibition and to raise funds for many charitable and community projects.

HOME NURSE

Where a patient is being cared for in the home, it makes things much easier for the person acting as nurse if all surplus furniture, pictures and hangings are removed from the room. This will lessen the accumulation of dust. Paper napkins and disposable tissues can be kept within reach of the patient; a paper bag pinned in a handy spot on the bed will allow a place for the waste. This bag, when taken from the sick room, should be sealed and, if possible, burned immediately; otherwise, it should be placed in a larger bag, sealed or tied and placed in the regular garbage container out of doors. For those who expect to have much home nursing to do, a course in home nursing through St. John Ambulance is very helpful.

Salt to beat summer heat

If the heat's getting you down, a few grains of salt may make the difference between comfort and fatigue.

Comfortable clothes, cooling devices and taking it easy are not enough to beat the heat if excessive perspiration has depleted the system of its necessary salt supply.

For every homemaker who watches over her family's health, there is simple and convincing evidence of salt loss in perspiration-soaked clothing. The stiffness and white frost which appear after the clothing is dry is the result of salt deposited by perspiration. And that salt must be replaced as a safeguard against weariness, loss of energy and the more serious consequences of heat cramps and prostration.

Here's where the homemaker's salt shaker comes in. A little more salt in preparation of food and more salt at the table at all meals keeps her family's salt supply at levels to overcome the losses from perspiration. Salty nibbles for children's snacks are another way that she keeps her active youngsters' salt supply in balance.

Just hope and hope, your hair may grow

Dr. S. J. Van Pelt, president of the British Society of Medical Hypnotists, suggests bald-headed men can "hope" themselves into a new head of hair.

"Relaxing is probably the best restorer of hair," he said. Relaxation will dispel tension and give the hair a chance.

"Raising hope may even raise hair. Hope yourself into a head of hair," the doctor suggested.

Source of calcium and riboflavin

When milk is used every day it can provide a large proportion of our needs for calcium, riboflavin and good quality protein. Canada's Food Rules recommend at least one pint of milk for children, one-and-a-half pints for adolescents and at least half a pint for adults. Canned, evaporated or dried milk will provide the same nutrients as whole milk, with the exception of butterfat.

The expanding town

(The Estevan Mercury, Sask.—July 26, 1936)

Away back in the early 'teen years when the Canadian west was in the throes of a boom with thousands of people taking over farm lands, hundreds of miles of new railway lines being built and towns mushrooming up along them, the enthusiasm envisioned metropolises by the dozens.

Railway divisional points, points from which branch lines ran off or to towns that were fortunate to be served by two different railway lines, all became opportunities for real estate men to speculate in glowing terms as to the future for the purpose of selling lots in adjacent acreage.

Dozens of cities and towns in the prairies were given this treatment and it is no exaggeration to say that town lots were sold in almost every country in the world due to exuberant advertising and high-pressure salesmen. It was an oft-quoted fact that nearly every "job" on a particular U.S. battleship stationed in the Orient had been sold at least one lot in one of the Grand Trunk Pacific's divisional points. That was one example of the far-reaching penetration of the sales pressure common in those hectic days.

Estevan did not escape the thrill and the final disappointment. A half dozen or more sub-divisions were surveyed and the buying and resale of lots became a serious pastime. Though 40 years have elapsed evidences still remain in one of them, about a mile from town, of the graded streets made as improvement to help entrap the weak investor. The land has long since returned to pasture even though a few trusting souls continued to pay taxes until comparatively recent years.

In a more real sense the boom has returned, but fortunately the sub-division expert and real estate promoter as such is missing.

This time the expansion of the town is not a pipe-dream to be realized in later years. Instead the business area has now overflowed into the adjoining rural municipality of Estevan with legitimate investment to meet the needs of the companies involved.

Suitable sites in the town itself are now practically unavailable for many types of business and these have gone past the limits to secure the most convenient and close-in spots obtainable.

Without planning or any form of persuasion there has been a most fortunate division of interest between housing, business and industrial. Residential construction has mainly centered in the west end and in Hillside. Trailer courts have taken over the semi-isolated "peninsulas" on the south. Business and industrial interest have centered and extended eastward and northward after having occupied all the trackage available in the yards of the two railways.

Oldtimers on return here, would be more than surprised to find the amount of growth eastward past the old gravel pit which extended on both sides of 39 highway and which has been refilled at a cost many times the amount the gravel taken from it sold for. The refill is now occupied by business establishments.

The spreading out of business into the municipality has brought a new angle of administration to the rural council. No longer is it concerned only with the problems of roads and weeds and crops and pastures and those things purely agricultural.

A whole flock of new responsibilities has fallen on its shoulders.

Urban problems of administration have been added to the rural. From now on they will be concerned with zoning, new streets or roads, lighting, new sanitary problems, new assessments and a lot of other things.

4-H Club tours build teamwork!

(The Drumheller Mail—July 25, 1936)

In most areas, the 4-H tour is becoming an annual feature of the summer's program. Some of these tours are to farm homes of fellow club members whereas others are further afield to such places as experimental farms, universities and large cities.

4-H tours and trips, whether large or small, are valuable and essential in developing a well-balanced club program. They help to satisfy the desire of everyone to travel, to meet new people and to exchange ideas. In addition, there is no finer medium through which members, leaders and representatives of the departments of agriculture can compare projects and talk about new ideas and solutions to common problems.

Tours help also to build team-work, to develop good publicity and to provide opportunities for specialists in industry and education to acquire a fuller knowledge of how 4-H clubs operate and of their contribution to the general betterment of living in rural areas.

Who buys Ceylon's tea

We have been hearing so much about the British getting kicked out of Ceylon that we fail to remember that Ceylon's entire economy is tied up with British foreign trade. Without the British outlet for her tea, Ceylon would cut a sorry figure in world trade. So, don't be surprised if some face-saving compromise is not reached before a final settlement is reached. With Iceland and the Americans the situation is a bit different. Way back in 1951 when we sat down in Iceland for two hours on our way back from Europe, the attitude of the Icelandic people was cold and indifferent . . . but they did feed us well, for which they were well paid. They are now, apparently, willing to sell out their birthright and freedom to a new ideology which has brought nothing but murder and slavery to those people who have embraced its philosophy. Here, too, we have a feeling that common sense will ultimately prevail.

MISS CANADA is back in Montreal after what she described "as the busiest two weeks of my life," following her jaunt to England and France. Miss Dorothy Moreau arrived back in the country after a J. Arthur Rank screen test in London, television appearances, radio auditions and a bit part in a movie. Miss Moreau, a 114-pound, five-foot-three beauty won the Miss Canada Pageant in Hamilton in early July and has since found little time to herself although she did manage to see Paris and London before her return. She is slated to make appearances on Canadian and American Television and will represent Canada in the Miss America Contest in Atlantic City in December. The above photo shows Miss Canada being greeted by her two admiring brothers, Rev. Bernard Moreau and Real Moreau on her return to Montreal.

Chemical control of Canada thistle

Canada thistle can be controlled by the use of 2,4-D ester, but eradication should not be expected from a single treatment.

In cereal grains, top-growth control is obtained with a treatment of 6 to 8 ounces acid equivalent. Such treatment should be applied to the grain crops during the four-leaf and early shot-blade stages of growth and is unlikely to do more than control thistle top-growth. Some degree of stand reduction is possible if a 12- to 16-ounce rate of 2,4-D ester is applied in the stubble shortly after removal of the crop, followed two weeks later by a cultural treatment.

Best stand reduction of thistles can be expected from one or more treatments of 2,4-D ester at 1 to 1½ pounds in the fallow years. The first application should be made at the early flower-bud stage of thistle growth, followed by a cultural operation two weeks later. The best procedure would be to give a first cultivation of fallows to kill early weed growth and volunteer grain, substituting the second fallow operation with the 2,4-D application when thistles have reached the bud stage. Fallowing can be resumed two weeks after chemical treatment.

A well-planned eradication program for the cropped areas of a farm should be supplemented by a program of spraying thistles in fence lines and waste areas, and on adjacent roadways. In these places, 2,4-D ester should be used and applied when the thistle growth is in bud. Continued treatment of infested areas is essential, and the timing of chemical application is of prime importance to assure the best possible results. In zero weather sound flies through dry air at 1,088 to 1,150 feet a second.

Output of asphalt and vinyl-asbestos floor tiles in June

Production of asphalt floor tiles declined in June and vinyl-asbestos tile production increased from last year, but output of both types was larger in the first six months this year than last. Output of asphalt floor tiles amounted to 10,009,376 square feet in the January-June period versus 9,077,794 a year ago and vinyl-asbestos floor tile to 6,783,443 square feet versus 5,511,461. June output of asphalt floor tiles totalled 1,466,820 square feet compared with 1,677,335 a year ago and vinyl-asbestos to 1,107,769 square feet compared to 809,061.

HONORARY ORTHODONTIC CONSULTANTS APPOINTED

The appointment of Dr. Joseph J. Schachter and Dr. J. G. Mitchell as honorary orthodontic consultants to the Physical Restoration Division was announced by Hon. J. Walter Erb, Minister of Public Health.

Dr. Schachter, who conducts a private practice for orthodontics in Saskatoon and Regina, will assist in the development of Orthodontic team services in Saskatoon to provide proper care for children with cleft palates or similar conditions requiring special evaluation. Dr. Mitchell will serve in a similar capacity in Regina.

(Orthodontia is the correction of deformities of the teeth through braces and other devices used by the dental specialist.)

Dr. Schachter was born in Montreal, and came to Saskatoon at an early age. He took his elementary education in Leask, and graduated from the University of Saskatchewan in 1932. In 1937 he graduated in dentistry from the University of Minnesota.

Following private practice in Saskatoon, Dr. Schachter joined the Canadian Army in 1940 and saw service overseas with the Canadian Army Dental Corps. Following the war, he took special orthodontic training in New York City and Philadelphia and a graduate orthodontic course at the University of Illinois. He was certified as an orthodontic specialist by the University of Saskatchewan in 1951.

Dr. Schachter holds membership in the Canadian Dental Association (Orthodontic Section), the Saskatchewan Dental Association, the American Orthodontic Association, the Pacific Coast Orthodontic Association and the Honorary Dental Society of America.

Dr. Mitchell has had previous public health dental experience in Newfoundland. He conducts a private orthodontic practice in Regina and Moose Jaw at the present time.

After public and high school education in Milestone, Saskatchewan, Dr. Mitchell graduated from Regina College as an Associate in Arts. He then obtained the D.D.S. degree from the University of Toronto in 1935, followed by the degree Master of Science in Dentistry from the same University in 1955. In the latter course he majored in Orthodontics.

Funny and Otherwise

Two sharp-faced men were drawing up articles of partnership before their lawyer. The lawyer went over the document before the final signing and said suddenly, "But there is no mention of fire or bankruptcy. These must go in."

"Quite right," said the partners, speaking at once. "Put them in, but the profits are to be divided equally in both cases."

A man was devouring an apple as fast as he could. "Go easy, Sam," said his friend. "You'd better watch out for worms in that apple."

"Listen, pal," laughed Sam, worms have to watch out for themselves.

A customer at a barber's shop was the West End play-boy type, and his mannerisms were extremely pretty. Followed the usual badinage . . . and then, the young man said: "Will you have supper with me tonight—and then maybe go to a night club?" "I don't think I should," said the girl. "I'm married, you see."

But the playboy was the self-confident, high-humored, marriage-resistant—moss-shackles type.

"Nonsense! Ask your husband, I'm sure he won't mind." "Ask him yourself," said the girl. "He's shaving you."

"Did the defendant use improper language when he was beating his horse?" asked a lawyer.

"Well, he talk mighty loud, suh," replied the witness.

"Did he indulge in profanity?"

"The witness seemed puzzled, and the lawyer put the question to another form: 'What I want to know is, did he use words that would be proper for your minister to use in a sermon?'"

"Oh, yes, suh," he old man replied. "But they'd have to be 'tranged different'."

"There are hundreds of ways of making money, but only one that's honest."

"What's that?"

"Ah, I thought you wouldn't know."

NWU CAR DRIVERS RECEIVE NATIONAL HONORS

The National Safety Council announced this week that Northwestern Utilities, Limited, has been presented the Council's Award of Honor for the excellent safety record of its automobile fleet.

The Award of Honor is the highest recognition obtainable for an outstanding safety record and is presented only where an establishment's record satisfies rigid requirements laid down in the Council's Award plan for Recognizing Good Industrial Safety Records.

Ned H. Dearborn, President of the National Safety Council, in a letter of congratulations to Northwestern Utilities, Limited, explained that the company qualified for the award because of its low injury rates in the 1954 award year. Its injury frequency rate was 86 percent better than the "par" rate, and its injury severity was 97 percent better. "Par" rates are computed by the National Safety Council from the Company's experience in other years and from the rates of the industry classification to which the company belongs.

Out of 406 Gas Utilities evaluated on the North American continent only two qualified for the Award of Honor, of which Northwestern was one.

News Report From Edmonton

By Ken Mason

EDMONTON — It looks as though Albertans are in for a long wait before they can begin benefiting from the proposed federal-provincial hospital insurance program.

Alberta is ready to go ahead almost any time, but so far there aren't enough other provinces prepared to join forces with Ottawa in the plan which would provide Canadians with free hospital and diagnostic services.

To date, only the three western provinces have expressed a willingness to join in the scheme. And Ottawa has made the stipulation that before it can be introduced at least six of the provinces—representing a majority of the Canadian population—must be prepared to participate.

This means either Ontario or Quebec must join, because they have the big concentration of population. So far, Quebec has remained characteristically cool, and Ontario hasn't exactly fallen all over itself in its haste to jump on the bandwagon.

At last reports, Ontario had set up a commission to study the matter, and until that commission makes its findings, there will be no national health program.

The Alberta health department has been working out details of a plan to submit to Ottawa when the federal government gives the green light.

Health Minister Dr. W. W. Cross said last week that the plan is practically completed, and that this province can go ahead any time Ottawa is ready.

However, with the delay in the east, the health minister wasn't too optimistic about early introduction of the plan. Officials now believe it can't possibly be introduced before the spring of 1958.

Of course, there is talk of a federal election being called next year, and undoubtedly the federal government would like to point with pride to an operative health plan as one of its achievements. But unless things develop faster than anticipated, the election is delayed, the Liberals will have to be satisfied with merely promising the hospital scheme to electors.

Alberta, a consistent leader in health and welfare measures, already has its own hospital insurance program—available to around 90 percent of the population—with the cost shared by the patient, the province and the municipality. This plan will continue to operate until the national scheme goes into effect.

This province also was all set to launch a medical service plan, but it is being held in abeyance until the national program gets started.

Dr. Cross a year ago introduced the voluntary medical plan, under which the province would subsidize insurance firms which in turn would sell policies to individuals at reduced rates. The legislature approved it and voted the money to start it.

When Ottawa decided to get into the health insurance act, the government decided to hold back the medical program. The hope is that once the hospitals and diagnostic service is operating successfully, Ottawa will want to extend the field and provide medical coverage. In the meantime, Albertans will have to pay their medical bills as best they can or purchase their own medical policies at full cost.

The smoke of battle has cleared away at Ottawa (for the time being, anyway) and work is progressing on the controversial Trans-Canada natural gas pipeline.

With every mile of pipe placed in the ground Premier Manning's government comes closer to realizing its fond dream of finally finding an export market for this province's surplus gas.

Two contracting firms are on the job working eastward through Sask. from the Alberta border, and at last reports about 60 feet of line had been laid. So far Trans-Canada has only 125 miles of pipe. The recent U.S. steel strike raised complications, but if all goes well there will be more pipe available when the current supply runs out.

According to the construction schedule, the line is supposed to reach Winnipeg and Brandon this winter. At this point no one

TEST FOR OUR SCHOOLS
(Edmonton Journal)

Canada's educational system will be in for its biggest test ever during the next 10 to 20 years. During that time, it will be turning out hundreds of thousands of young people, born during the baby-boom years of the Second World War and after, supposedly trained to contribute their skills and knowledge to Canada's industrial growth. How well prepared they will be depends largely on those who are educating them now.

The fact that the next few years will provide the acid test is brought home sharply when we discover how many of our skilled positions are now filled by immigrants. As Michael Barkway points out in the Financial Post, for every two engineers graduated from Canadian universities during the past five years, one was added to the labor force by immigration. Federal labor department figures show 8,123 engineers were added to the labor force by graduation and 4,124 by net immigration (newcomers minus those who have left the country). Surveys now being carried out are expected to show much the same picture in other professions and in skilled trades.

While large numbers of highly-trained immigrants are giving our working force an indispensable boost at the moment, help from this source is not likely to continue. The department of labor estimates that "a few years hence the native labor supply will take a leap of at least 50 per cent and gradually grow up to a crop twice as large as the present one." This means that Canada's hopes rest squarely on the young people now in school and on their younger brothers and sisters. How well they will meet this challenge depends on how well they are being educated now.

The challenge to education is two-fold. First, we must produce enough skilled tradesmen and professional men to fill the place now filled by immigrants. Second, the skilled men we do produce must be well enough trained to take their places in the increasing complex enterprises which are growing in Canada. We need, in short, more trained men and better trained men.

A third challenge extends beyond our educators to the community at large. We must make it worthwhile for trained Canadians to stay in Canada. Opportunities here must be sufficient to prevent our skilled men from being enticed away to more attractive positions in the United States. Even though the situation has improved of late, hundreds of technical and professional workers still leave this country every year. Canada will, in the future, need these people even more than she does now. The products of Canadian schools and colleges must be persuaded to remain in the Canadian working force if this country is to grow and prosper.

On highway 14 base course between Holden and Torhear, grading. Work stops when it rains. (And it was raining when we wrote this!)

Average size of Alberta ranches are 2,000 acres, owned by the individual rancher with 8000 additional acres under lease from the provincial government.

From 1945 to 1955 motor vehicle registrations in Canada increased from 1,497,081 to 3,948,787.

Angling for a "compleat" car?

Two pets—both frisky! "Duchay's" tricks are fun, but this Pontiac has some tricks up its fenders, too. Pleasant tricks with your budget ... and some startling road performances. Your dealer can show you.

Best catch of the day! Oh, we're not talking about the fish ... it's only average. It's that Pontiac, and the smiles are for the car, not the fish. See it at your dealer's.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

As Lezak Walton put it; "Tis a wondrous fine catch to be sure."

PONTIAC

Seems like everyone's looking for the perfect ... the "compleat" ... car! And it's no farther away than your nearest Pontiac dealer. You'll find proof that Pontiac combines grace, beauty, prestige and performance and reasonable price ... a "completeness" that goes far, far deeper than mere looks or accessories!

Then—Enjoy a Demonstration Drive in this car of cars. Believe us, you'll relish the way it hugs the curves, slides smoothly up or down hills, takes every straightaway with supreme confidence. The ride's the thing ... and with Pontiac what a wonderful ride it is.

All this is very exciting ... but the best part of all in this "compleat" Pontiac is its price. With all of Pontiac's pleasure and prestige, it's still easily within anyone's budget, priced right down with the lowest. Yes—just like a trout to a "Royal Coachman" ... that's how you'll rise to a Pontiac. Be sure you do—soon!

Voluntary instructors for Home Nursing classes

(By Mrs. Ella Donnelly, Director, Nursing Services, Saskatchewan Division, Canadian Red Cross Society)

Without warning someone in your family takes sick and on top of all your other household duties, you find yourself in a position of being a nurse. To a trained nurse this situation does not present serious obstacles, but for a young wife and mother or daughter, their feeling of helplessness is matched only by the fear of doing something wrong.

The problem is not a new one. It has been duplicated in countless homes since time immemorial. However, in hundreds of Canadian homes, there is at least one member of the family who does know what to do when illness occurs.

The Canadian Red Cross has been among those concerned with the teaching of Home Nursing. The Red Cross Home Nursing Course is an educational program taught by volunteer professional nurses to lay people. The course consists of at least 12 two-hour instruction, demonstration and practice periods.

The Home Nursing Course teaches the members of the class to recognize the symptoms of illness and how to report these to a doctor, how to keep a patient clean, comfortable and well nourished, how to give simple treatments and medicines ordered by the attending doctor. How to control the spread of communicable disease, how to use community health services and how to make improvised equipment.

Department store sales increased

Canadian department store sales increased 8.2 percent in the week ending July 14 this year over last. Sales in all provinces increased with the exception of Manitoba which reported a 4.5 percent decline. Sales increases in the other provinces were: Atlantic Provinces 10.3 percent; Quebec 18.1 percent; Ontario 13.1 percent; Saskatchewan 7.9 percent; Alberta 18.6 percent; and British Columbia 9.9 percent.

One night before B. S. Pulley visited the Santa Anita race track he dreamed constantly about the number 8. Not one to ignore such an omen, he bet $500 on entry number five in the fifth race. And it came in fifth. 3208

Strange fish tentatively identified

A strange-looking fish caught in the Souris river near the Midale Dam may prove to be another find of a rare type in Saskatchewan.

Now in the possession of the Saskatchewan Museum of Natural History, the fish was caught by J. K. Frederickson, of Weyburn.

According to Dr. Robert W. Nero, assistant director at the museum, it may prove to be the Brown or Black Bullhead (Ameiurus nebulosus) belonging to the catfish family.

It is five inches long and appears, at first examination, to have the same features and external appearance as the Bullhead, he said.

The Bullhead has a heavy head, no scales, whiskers or tentacles on the lower jaw, a wide mouth, many sharp teeth and strong jaws. It has a dorsal fin and two pectoral fins with sharp needle-like spines which secrete an extremely irritating solution.

The Bullhead is rare in Saskatchewan but is common in the southern part of Manitoba and the eastern portion of the continent including the United States.

The first known find of the fish in Saskatchewan was made at White Sand river, east of Canora in September, 1954, by Emil Quint, of Yorkton. Photographs of this specimen were all that were available and Dr. Nero suggests that any future finds of peculiar fish should be preserved in a jar with alcohol, or other preservative.

This fish will be submitted to the University of Saskatchewan for positive identification by Dr. D. S. Rawson, head of the biology department, and upon its return will be kept at the museum as a scientific record for study groups.

Driver program proves itself

While Winnipeg drivers have had fewer fatalities in the first six months of this year than has been known since 1935, fatal accidents in rural Manitoba are climbing.

R. B. Baillie, provincial registrar of motor vehicles, reports there have been 21 fatal accidents in the country area since January and 537 injury accidents were recorded at the end of June for 1956. This is almost 175 more than last year's six-month total.

On the other hand, Winnipeg has had only three fatal accidents since January. St. Boniface and St. James have both been free of motor accident deaths in the past six months.

Mr. Baillie says he thinks the driver improvement program has done much to cut down accidents in the Winnipeg area and believes its effectiveness shows up in the comparison of town and country accident statistics.

There are no driving programs yet outside the Winnipeg area. Examiners and equipment are ready to launch such a program at Brandon, once suitable space has been obtained.

The security that springs from love is the very heart of our living. It is a privilege known only in a country such as ours, where men and women are free to work together for it.

And when we live up to the privilege of taking care of our own, we also help take care of our country. For the strength of Canada lies in secure homes all joined in a common security.

INTERESTING PORTS OF CALL FOR MAURETANIA PASSENGERS

Four Sunshine Cruises to the West Indies and South America have been scheduled for the Cunard liner Mauretania during the 1956-57 winter season. T. G. Miller, general passenger manager in Canada of the Cunard Line, announced today. The voyages will range from 14 to 18 days, and the Mauretania's cruising speed will enable her to call at considerably more ports on each cruise.

The 36,000-ton Mauretania will sail from New York Feb. 7 for an 18-day cruise to ten principal Caribbean ports. Minimum rate for this voyage is $515. This will be followed by a 17-day cruise leaving New York Feb. 28. Rates begin at $485, and a special feature of this trip will be the Mauretania's first visit to the island of Nevis, birthplace of Alexander Hamilton. Nevis will celebrate the bi-centennial of Hamilton's birth during 1957.

The Mauretania leaves New York March 21 on a 14-day cruise to eight ports, with a minimum rate of $390, and on April 6 it completes her cruising season with a 15-day voyage to nine ports. Rates for this cruise start at $395.

Among the varied ports of call to be visited on one or more of the Sunshine Cruises, are: Nassau, St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbados, Trinidad, La Guaira, Caracas, Cristobal, Kingston, Havana, Port-au-Prince, Nevis, Grenada and St. Lucia.

Saskatoon or saskatoon?

(From The Regina Leader-Post—July 23, 1956)

A not insignificant effect of the numerous rains of this spring and summer can now be found all across the countryside of Saskatchewan.

Frequently, this effect can be noted by human beings, singly or collectively, carrying tins or pails or pans and assuming all manner of postures.

They are picking saskatoons, that luscious prairie berry, with the sweet purple fruit.

It is saskatoon season and saskatoon means pies, pies which appeal to the sense of taste and smell and sight.

Perhaps because its city bears an identical name, the Saskatoon Star-Phoenix has performed the service of reproducing the recipe for saskatoon pie from the Golden Jubilee cook book compiled by the Saskatoon Homemakers' clubs.

That recipe is reproduced here, not because the virtues of the saskatoon need to be sold to anyone, but because any cook welcomes the suggestion of variation:

4 cups of fresh, or one quart of canned saskatoons;
1 cup of sugar mixed with 1 tablespoon minute tapioca;
1 tablespoon lemon juice;
Line pie pan with pastry. Add above ingredients, put on top crust and bake 1 hour at about 450 degrees for cooked berries, or 15 minutes at 450 degrees and 1/2 hour at 350 degrees for uncooked berries.
(Saskatoons may be canned without sugar or water especially for making pies.)

The Star-Phoenix has taken the liberty of upgrading the saskatoon berry, lower case "s", to Saskatoon, upper case "S". Among many connoisseurs of fine foods, the promotion, above the ranking of the apple, the blue berry and the peach, may be wholly justified.

Even the Cree Indians from whose word, misakwatomin, the name saskatoon was somehow mysteriously derived, might approve.

But it does not hold with Webster's dictionary, nor even with that final authority, the news desk of The Leader-Post.

Perhaps, with the Star-Phoenix blessing, the city itself, whose residents consider their community unique in Canada, might go a step further. Perhaps they might downgrade the city's name from Saskatoon to saskatoon, out of respect for the berry, with which its history is linked. Confusion be hanged.

Cities, however, may come and go. The simple and lovely saskatoon berry will outlast them all and continue to bring joy to men who live on these prairies and who love good things to eat.

A good job - not quite finished

(From The Kindersley Clarion—July 10, 1956)

In Sunset Lodge Kindersley and district have a project they may well be proud of. In particular, we can take both pride and pleasure in the knowledge that the Lodge came into being during Saskatchewan's Golden Jubilee year, to celebrate a series of celebrations designed to do honor to the sturdy pioneers who ventured out to open up the "Last Great Frontier" and turn its barren plains into the "Granary of the World".

Nothing could be more fitting than that suitable accommodation should be provided for those pioneers who, because of the infirmities of advancing years, find that it is inadvisable for them to live by themselves any longer, or who may have fallen upon evil times and are thus no longer able to support themselves entirely. Sunset Lodge takes care of such cases and does it in a manner that, we feel sure, provides a maximum of comfort and ease to its guests.

Unfortunately, however, the original estimate of cost for the building was exceeded by a considerable amount, partly due to the increase in the cost of both material and labor between the time the first estimates were made and the time that the building was actually constructed. As a result, it has been found necessary to find 15 public spirited citizens who have agreed to guarantee $1,000.00 each to the bank in order that the contractor may be paid in full and other small incidentals taken care of. By this means, the Lodge has acquired a clean balance sheet in its first year of operation.

In order to take these 15 men off the hook, a canvass for the necessary funds will be made and it is hoped that a generous response to this appeal will result in the needed cash becoming available in the very near future.

Insects by the thousands

(From The Hanna Herald)

A recent report from the department of agriculture in Ottawa listed 80,000 species of insects in Canada's species are being discovered each day.

While many Canadians consider insect pests as bothersome creatures of interest only to bug collectors, the fact is they pose a great economic problem to the nation. Admittedly there are many useful insects which should be protected, but there is a vast number which cause incalculable damage to the country's rural economy.

According to current statistics the annual loss in livestock and field crop production in Canada attributed directly to insects is in the neighborhood of $312,000,000. This sum is staggering indeed and undoubtedly would have been much greater had it not been for various agricultural chemicals developed over the past few years.

TV sales decline; radio sales continue to rise

Producers' sales of television sets declined again in May as compared with a year earlier but radio-set sales continued to show gains. Sales of TV sets have been lower than a year earlier since December last, while radio sales have been higher since the start of 1955.

Sales of television sets declined to 20,088 in May from 20,709 a year earlier and to 186,341 in the January-May period from 218,540. Radio set sales rose to 64,275 in May from 51,376 and to 262,206 in the five months from 211,433.

The decline in sales of TV sets was in table models, sales of this type dropping to 10,101 units in May from 11,691 and to 88,359 in the January-May period from 127,963. Sales of console sets rose to 9,504 in May from 8,754 and to 83,294 in the five months from 69,062. Sales of three-way combinations were up to 483 in May from 264 and to 4,588 in the five months from 2,515.

Sales of radio receiving sets were larger for all three main types in May and for two in the five months. May sales were: home sets, 25,984 (20,204 a year earlier); portable and auto, 37,959 (29,439); and combinations, 2,332 (1,705). Five-month sales: home sets, 126,864 (93,996); portable and auto, 123,719 (104,208); and combinations, 12,623 (13,289).

OIL OUTPUT STOPPED UP

Oil production in July is expected to spill over the 500,000 barrel mark as a result of an increase in drilling as well as the longer month.

Meantime, J. G. Cowan, Manitoba, deputy minister of Mines and Natural Resources, reports that June's total substantially topped the May figure. Total crude oil production for June reached 475,578 barrels—11,843 barrels more than in May and almost 150,000 barrels more than in June last year.

With 11 new wells, the number added to production is now 618. Five were abandoned in June, and these actually producing number 568.

Accidents kill far more farmers than Poliomyelitis

Needless accidents have killed more of our farm people by far than polio ever did, but unfortunately the Department of Public Health will never have a vaccine to protect people against the results of their own carelessness, Health Minister T. J. Bentley said.

Saskatchewan's third annual Farm Safety Week, according to Mr. Bentley, is to make the farm population aware of the frequency and types of accidents which kill several scores of people every year and cause painful injury and disablement to several thousands. Last year 98 fatalities were reported, and there were an estimated 7,000 non-fatal accidents on farms and in farm homes.

"Awareness must precede a change of habits and active prevention," Mr. Bentley said. "The farmer and the members of his family have their safety in their own hands. Our department has powerful and active partners in its safety activity, but the farm resident is still the key person in this effort."

The health minister suggested careful safety checks on farms and in farm homes, and participation in community efforts to spread the word of prevention.

The special message from the department is "Take longer—live longer" and this, Mr. Bentley said, was based on the fact that not only city folk but farm people have been caught up in rush and speed. Many a farmer has thrown his life or his livelihood to the winds to save a minute in making a power hitch.

Sixteen out of 23 tractor fatalities last year occurred elsewhere than on the land. Speed and a willingness to take crazy chances were factors in a number of these accidents. Passengers on tractors, or child operators, were also accident factors.

Mr. Bentley reported that the tractor-tilling demonstrations have been in such demand all over the province that many requests must be put off until next year. The demonstrations are a co-operative effort of the provincial health and agriculture departments and the University of Saskatchewan.

Got a chair to dance with?

The Saskatchewan March of Dimes has issued an appeal to Saskatchewan residents for used wheelchairs that are required for dancing.

According to Dr. F. A. Fernet, provincial chairman of the March of Dimes campaign, many of the adults who, because of polio, are permanently paralyzed in the lower limbs find that they can enjoy such activities as square-dancing and basketball from wheelchairs. Regular practice sessions are held and a limited number of public demonstrations have been put on.

There is a great shortage of wheelchairs for this purpose so that not all who would like to participate are able to do so. People who have used wheelchairs in their home are requested to contact the March of Dimes office at the Ross Block in Saskatoon.

Funny and Otherwise

Mother: "Why can't you be a good little boy, Bobby?"
Bobby (happily): "I'll be good for a nickel."
Mother: "The idea. Why can't you be like your father—good for nothing?"

Doctor: "You'll have to stop worrying and thinking about yourself so much. Throw yourself into your work."
Patient: "But, Doc, I'm a cement mixer."

Son: "Pop, what makes electricity?"
Pop: "Don't know, son."

Son: "What makes thunder and lightning?"
Pop: "Couldn't prove it by me."

Son: "What makes—Qh, never mind."

Pop: "That's all right, boy, you go right ahead and ask questions. That's the only way you'll learn."

Nellie: "Two boy friends were fighting over her in the front yard. Her father remarked: 'If you like one boy better than the other why don't you jump in and help him?'"

"Well, papa, it's like this," answered Nellie. "You've seen two dogs fighting over a bone many times, haven't you? Well, then, tell me this, did you ever see the bone join in the fight?"

A revivalist went to conduct a service in a town where he had never preached before. On alighting from the train he found in his pocket a letter he had forgotten to post. He hailed a boy standing by and asked: "Son, can you tell me where the post office is?"
"Sure," said the boy, and gave the preacher's directions. The preacher thanked him and asked: "Do you know who I am?"

"No."
"Well, I'm the preacher who is preaching here tonight. You come to the service and I'll show you the way to Heaven."
"Gwan!" said the boy. "You don't even know the way to the post office!"

Buildings collapse

A hotel and a neighboring house shaken by wartime bombs, collapsed without warning in suburban St. Denis, injuring 12 persons, two of them seriously. The hotel's 35 tenants and the eight residents of the house next door were trapped but rescue workers quickly pulled all of them from the wreckage.

HAY SHORTAGE

The fodder situation in Alberta is causing agricultural officials increasing concern. The hay harvest was poor this season and reserves were almost completely depleted by last winter's severity.

Both Robert Putnam, deputy minister of agriculture, and A. M. Wilson, field crops commissioner, warn of the danger of a livestock catastrophe this winter unless livestock men manage to provide themselves with adequate supply of feed.

The federal government and the Alberta government have agreed on two very important pieces of legislation, the construction of the Trans-Canada pipe line and the proposed federal-provincial hospital insurance program (free hospital and diagnostic services).

Have you a surplus of vegetables? Lots of peas, beans, beets, carrots and potatoes and any other garden truck? Your friends and neighbors in the hauled area would be very glad to help anyone use up any surplus. Please notify some friend who was hauled out or at least word with Fred Jack, Larry Meier or Ross McFarland that you have surplus fresh vegetables. If you lost your garden and need fresh vegetables, please get in touch with any of the above.

Winner in Teen-Age National Road-E-O

The Ottawa Daily Citizen of July 10 has this to say in part of the event:

"A 'hot-rod' driver of West Vancouver became Canada's official teenage driving champion last night at the awards banquet of the first National Teen-Age Road-E-O."

Tony Seale, 18-year-old son of Vancouver dentist Douglas Seale was awarded a golden rosebowl and $1,000 scholarship as the first prize, after judges gave him an 847.5 average out of 1,000 possible points.

He was victor over 11 other contestants from coast to coast, who had competed in four days of interviews, written tests and driving tests both on Ottawa streets and in the Cartier Square Drill Hall."

A well-protected and well-managed forest can produce an ever-increasing harvest of wood material in endless rotations. Many European forests have been doing this for five centuries without reducing their "capital stock."
